

A resume from
Scott Nicholas Walton

Video Producer and Content Lead

Profile

Multi-skilled producer with 8+ years of experience across video production, live broadcast, podcasting, and commercial content - built almost entirely within Australian sport. Has led production for some of Australia's biggest sporting properties including the AFL, Australian Open, and Melbourne Cup Carnival. Brings a rare combination of hands-on technical craft, commercial partnership experience, and deep AFL content knowledge.

Key Skills

Video production and editing, live broadcast and multi-camera direction, podcast production, commercial and partnership content, social media strategy, and short and long form story telling.

Experience

Senior Social Media Producer and Content Creator at Golden Boot Media | Present

- Lead short form content creator, producing bespoke social media video content tailored to a passionate soccer audience across all major platforms.
- Responsible for social media publishing, graphics creation, and editorially-driven content designed to grow organic reach and drive website traffic.

Senior Producer at Producer (Clubby Sports) | 2023 to 2025

- Lead producer, videographer, and editor for major brand clients including Cobram Estate (multi-location shoots across Australian and USA), Telstra, and Deakin University.
- Directed full technical build and deliver of three camera live broadcast for Carlton Draught's Carlton Draft event - solving complex wireless AV routing and designing full GFX packages.
- Lead weekly AFL watch along stream series ClubbyTV sponsored by BWS - managing camera, audio, OBS, Discord hotline integration, and stream overlays.
- End-to-end producer of The Tradies podcast with Sam McClure and Mitch Cleary.
- One of two Senior Producers at the business; helped scale creative operations through rapid growth from 5 to 15+ staff.

Social Media Producer at The Front Bar | 2022-2023

- Led digital output for one of Australia's most popular AFL programs.
- Produced and published weekly clips, highlights and promotions; created short-form content adapted from broadcast to optimise reach across platforms.

Digital Producer at NewsCorp | 2021-2022

- Published breaking sports news and editorial content during a high-intensity AFL season and global events including the 2021 AFL Grand Final and Tokyo 2020 Olympics.
- Wrote subscription-optimised headlines and managed time-sensitive publishing under strict editorial standards.

A resume from
Scott Nicholas Walton

Video Producer and Content Lead

Experience (Continued)

Social Media Producer (Contract) at Australian Open | 2021

- Co-managed official social content for the Australian Open as part of six-person team during a COVID-restricted event.
- Produced real-time match highlights, player content, and branded partner assets to impression-based commercial targets.

Social Media Producer at Australian Football League | 2019-2021

- Managed day-to-day and live match-day social content across AFL's official channels (combined 3M+ followers).
- Sole social media operator for the 2020 AFL Grand Final — managing all real-time coverage and execution.
- Delivered 100% of commercial content obligations across AFL digital channels during COVID-driven staffing constraints.
- Produced social-first content from AFL podcasts and video segments across all major platforms.

Social Media Executive at Victoria Racing Club | 2019-2021

- Lead social content delivery across the Melbourne Cup Carnival including Lexus Melbourne Cup race day, managing real time publishing.
- Produced and edited marketing videos, paid campaign assets, and event-specific digital content across the Spring Racing Carnival.

Notable Projects

- The Highlights Club - founded and grew an AFL-focused Instagram page to 40k organic followers
- The Tradies Podcast - Producer for Sam McClure and Mitch Cleary's Trade and Free Agency podcast; 20% YoY growth.
- 2020 AFL Grand Final - Sole social media operator for the AFL's official channels across the historic Perth Grand Final.
- Carlton Draught's 'Carlton Draft' - directed full three-camera live broadcast including AV routing and graphic design.
- Clubby TV - weekly AFL live stream series, end-to-end production, including OBS, multi-camera, and sponsor integration.

Education

- Bachelor of Media at Latrobe University
- Certificate IV in Broadcasting at Box Hill Institute